FROM WASHINGTON.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

WASHINGTON, Friday, Nov. 26.

It is confidently asserted that the new move against Mr. Cushing will be successful, and that he will retire from the Collectorship, as soon as a successor shall have been agreed upon. How long this vacancy will last remains to be seen. The place has been offered to and declined by Judge PARKER.

The Indian Department will to-morrow decide upon the bids for furnishing Indian goods, and the following firms will probably be awarded the contracts:

Class No. 1—Dry goods, blankets—To CASSIDY, HOLLINGSHEAD & Co., New-York.

Class No. 2—Clothing—To WARNER, GALLOWAY, BALDWIN & Co., Boston.

Class No. 3—Hardware—To T. POMEROY, Baltimore.

Class No. 4—Guns—To H. E. LAMAR, Lancaster.

The bidders were numerous, and the competition was close and animated.

Mexico still continues to be an absorbing topic of discussion here. Señor MATA, who has been for months asking recognition by the United States as Minister from Juarez, the Constitutional President, is absent from the City at present; but the impression prevails ground that he will speedily be invited to return and be formally received as Minister.

This sentiment expresses, on behalf of the Juarez Party, the most liberal sentiments towards the United States, and an earnest desire to adopt immediate measures for the establishment of amicable and profitable relations with us. He acknowledges the absolute necessity of settling the just claims of our citizens against Mexico—to which purpose, in part, he intimates that the unbounded wealth of the Church will be promptly applied.

He further expressed the readiness of his colleagues to negotiate treaties, opening and protecting every desirable inter-sea means of communication for the benefit of the United States—to grant the desired right of way for a railroad through Chihuahua and Sonora; and to provide a liberal system of commerce and intercourse which shall open the entire country to our trade, and to settlement and development by our people.

It appears that Señor MATA laid this programme formally before the Administration months ago, but that it has never been acted upon. Meantime, the indirect recognition of the Zuloaga Government by Minister POMEROY has vanished without disavowal to bolster up that usurper's pretensions, and to the same degree operate against the Liberals. Mr. POMEROY was thoroughly "taken" by the Zuloaga party, who betrayed him into the expectation of getting a slice of territory for the United States forthwith.

There is no doubt that Señor MATA truly represents the views and feelings of the Liberals; but one cannot help questioning whether they have the power to carry out the wise programme above stated. Have not the evils of Mexico become chronic? Has she within herself enough of patriotism and political integrity to maintain a stable Government? Or, is the intervention of a foreign power essential to bring order out of the chaos, and hold it in form long enough to acquire stability?

I am informed that Slave agents in the Southern States a Southern League—one of whose aims is to organize the supply of negro labor in the planting States. They claim that the States themselves have a perfect right to make laws legalizing and regulating an African free-appropriation system, and that Congress has no power to interfere with, or prohibit it. Starting with this claim, they are now engaged in operating upon the State of Mississippi with a view to securing the enactment of a law under which to immediately carry out a system of African appropriation—or "the Slave-trade in disguise." If they succeed, we shall have a new contest before Congress in relation to its power to "regulate" this branch of "commerce" by suppressing it altogether.

COX, of Ohio, and was blackballed when that gentleman took ground in the House against the Administration measures. Subsequently, Mr. COX supported the English bill, which made his peace with the Administration; and now that he has been rebuked by a very handsome vote, the President cards himself of the first opportunity to reward the enemy MILLER. A son-in-law of MENARD's arrived in town last evening in search of the vacant Postmastership—but was too late.

MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

The Board met at 5 P. M., yesterday, President CLERKY in the chair.

The Committee on Finance reported in favor of making donations of $1,000 to the Northwestern Dispensary, $250 to the Ladies' Depository, and $500 to the Women's Prison Association and Home. The report was laid over.

The report of the same Committee, amending the report from the Board of Councilmen in favor of donating $1,500 to the Infirmary for Indigent Women and Children, by reducing the amount to $800, was presented and laid over.

The same Committee reported in favor of concurring with the Board of Councilmen in donating $500 to the New-York Opthalmic Hospital, and a like sum to the Seamen's Friend Society. The report was laid over.

Alderman BEEKE's resolution in favor of directing the Comptroller to draw his warrant for $600, payable to Jonas N. Phillips, Esq., to defray the expenses incurred by the members of the late Common Council in defending themselves against the suit recently prosecuted against them was called up. Some debate followed.

Alderman MCSPEDON said if these expenses were not paid, he should be in favor of asking the Counsel to the Corporation to be present at all the meetings of the Board, so that he might be consulted on every measure before it was passed.

Alderman TOOZER opposed the resolution.

Alderman ADAMS said if such expenses were not defrayed by the City, any one who pretended to be a lawyer because his brother was might have the members of the Board indicted for any measure passed by them.

A motion to refer the resolution to the Counsel to the Corporation was lost and the resolution was adopted, (Ayes 12; Noes 2,) Messrs. TOOZER and DAVIS voting in the negative.

The report of the Committee on Finance in favor of concurring with the Board of Councilmen in appropriating $750 to the graduates of the New-York Institution for the Blind, was adopted.

A resolution directing the Street Commissioner to remove the ruins of the Crystal Palace forthwith, and to advertise for plans for a [illegible] was presented and referred to the Committee on Lands and Places.

A communication was received from Mayor TIEMANN urging the necessity of improving the condition of the Russ pavement in Broadway. It was referred to the Committee on Streets.

The Board adjourned to Monday.

BOARD OF COUNCILMEN.

The Board of Councilmen met last evening at the usual hour, C. H. HASWELL in the Chair. After the reading of the minutes of several preceding meetings, a remonstrance was presented from the Hudson River Railroad against the passage of the resolution imposing onerous conditions in the running of small cars upon their track. The owners of property on Second-street presented a remonstrance against paving it with Belgian pavement.

Engine Company No. 8 presented a petition for repairs to the engine, asking that $200 be appropriated for that purpose.

Dr. Campbell's bill of $360, for professional services, was referred to the Committee on Police.

The President offered a resolution, directing the Street Commissioner to report to the Board the cause of the delay in the repairs to the City Hall. It was adopted.

A report of the Committee on Finance, in favor of paying Hayes and others $140, for reporting in the Matsell investigation case, was laid over.

Mayor TIEMANN returned with his objections the resolutions directing the Street Commissioner to repair the walk in front of Nos. 162, 164 and 166 Mercer-street. The work directed to be done is in front of property belonging to others than the Corporation, and an ordinance should have been passed, so that an assessment could be laid on the property benefited.

The resolution of the Committee on Roads concurring to change the grade of Forty-ninth-street, between Second and Third avenues, was returned, and the reasons therefor, stating some technical illegalities, given.

The resolution granting permission to regulate the curb and gutter on Eighty-eighth-street, between Second and Third avenues, was also returned, on the ground that the street is not opened according to law. Among the resolutions offered were the following: That the Street Commissioner be directed to employ some competent person to take charge of and regulate the electric clocks in the public buildings of the City; that the Harlem Gas Company be directed to lay mains in One Hundred and Fifty-fifth-street, from Tenth-avenue to Kingsbridge Road, and to light the street with gas. They were referred to the appropriate Committees.

Mayor TIEMANN sent in to the Councilmen the letter of the Vaucluse Commissioner, presenting a copy of the likeness of General Bolivar to the City of New-York. Appropriate resolutions acknowledging the gift were passed.

The Board concurred in awarding the contract for the erection of a new look-out on Macdougal-street Tower to John Noe. $720 is the sum named for the performance of the work. Resolutions of condolence with the family of BARTHOLOMEW HEALY, recently deceased, and formerly Alderman from the Fourth Ward, were concurred in.

Document No. 14, being a "Report of the Committee on Ordinances in reply to a resolution in reference to regulating the Street Department," was then taken up, section by section. But little progress was made, the time previous to adjournment being principally occupied by discussion on parliamentary points, some of which was rather exciting.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.

The Board met yesterday afternoon at 3 P. M. President FUREY in the Chair.

A large number of bills for advertising the election laws were presented, and referred to the Committee on County Officers.

Mr. REILEY presented a resolution directing the Committee on Criminal Courts and Police to inquire who appointed Officer Baker, from whose custody Dr. GALLAGHER escaped the other day, and to ascertain whether the policeman is a proper person to hold the office that he occupies.

Mr. KENNEDY desired that the inquiry should go further than this. He understood that this man, in spite of his disgraceful conduct, was still retained in his place. It was by the permission of the Supervisors that the Judges appointed these Court-officers, and if the latter were improper persons the competency of the Judges who made these appointments should be considered.

Mr. BURNS added to his resolution a provision advising the propriety of taking the appointing power from the Judges of the Court of Sessions, and placing it in other hands. The resolution was then adopted.

Mr. FUREY offered a resolution, directing the Committee on County Officers to confer with the City authorities with regard to the expediency of enlarging the Bridewell-street Jail property, or a portion of it, for the purpose of erecting a County Jail. It was adopted.

A resolution directing that certain previously appropriated for election purposes, be paid to the Trustees of the Metropolitan Police Department, was adopted.

The Board adjourned to Friday next, 3 P. M.

CITY POLITICS.

Tammany Ratification Meeting.

Purser and Townsend Indorsed for Comptroller and Almshouse Governor.

Ugly Fighting—Black Eyes and Bloody Noses.

The Democrats who have proved faithful to the Tammany régime, through all its varying fortunes, met last night, in the old wigwam, to show by their presence their devotion to the principles of "regular nominations and the usages of the Party," and, more specifically, to ratify the nominations of GEO. H. PURSER for Comptroller, and ISAAC H. TOWNSEND for Almshouse Governor.

The assemblage at first was not flatteringly large, though, as a means of making it so, a band had been stationed on the balcony, and a pile of blazing tar-barrels occupied the centre of the square, from which rose a dense volume of suffocating smoke, that was wafted by the shifting breeze, now here, now there, and not unfrequently into the faces of the admiring crowd on Tammany Hall steps. When, at length, the prime movers in the meeting (which, it is but just to say, became eventually quite a large one) had taken their places on the platform, and the crowd, safe from the perilous crush up the stairway, had got into the hall,

Mr. E. E. HALE, the Surveyor of the Port, nominated for Chairman Mr. RICHARD E. CONNOLLY. The nomination was carried without dissent. Mr. CONNOLLY returned his thanks to the Committee of Arrangements for this opportunity of stating to the Democracy assembled in Tammany Hall that he would give his cordial support to the nomination of Mr. PURSER and Mr. TOWNSEND. [Cheers.] And the Democracy of this City and country owed it, not only to themselves, but to the Democracy of the State and of the nation, and to the memories of this venerable Hall in which they now stood, to rally to the support of the regular candidates of the party, and insure them a triumphant majority over their opponents.

Just as Mr. CONNOLLY was about concluding, a rough-looking customer in a red shirt, who was standing below the speaker's stand, broke out into some very unseemly exclamations, from which his friends endeavored to prevent him by placing their hands over his mouth, and indulging in various gentle endearments. In this they failed, and the bulk of the crowd, either from sympathy, indifference or fear, refused to interfere. The interruptions at length became so gross, and the language so obscene, that the speaker could not succeed in making himself heard, and virtually concluded in dumb show, the only words audible being those of the gentleman in red, vociferating at somebody on the platform such tender compliments as these: "You lie! You lie! &c." Some one on the platform then called on those below to put the fellow out. "No, but wait till I get at you, you d——d ——!" was the rejoinder. At last, after any amount of dragging and hauling, during which numerous blows were exchanged, the gentleman in red was got out.

After the adoption of lists of three Vice-Presidents and two Secretaries from each of the Wards, Mr. BERGNIER was introduced and read the following resolutions, which were adopted unanimously:

Resolved, That the Democracy of the City of New-York reaffirms its devotion to the foreign and domestic policy of JAMES BUCHANAN, and the resolutions relative to Cuba and Mexico unanimously adopted at the recent meeting, in this hall, to ratify the County ticket, since triumphantly elected.

Resolved, That while we deplore the defeat of AMASA J. PARKER and the Democratic State ticket at the November election, we congratulate the Democratic Party of the Union on an increased vote of 35,000, and we feel confident that, with united and earnest efforts, the Empire State will in future contests successfully vindicate its devotion to the principles and policy essential to the safety and economical government of the State, and the interests, honor, and integrity of the Union.

Resolved, That the attention of every class of the community has been justly directed to the increased taxation, and inefficient and lascious administration of the financial affairs of this City, and it has become the positive duty and interest of every citizen to secure a more economical economy and honesty in the municipal Government, and reduce the burdens imposed upon all classes, but especially onerous on the poor and industrious.

Resolved, That deeply convinced of the necessity of effecting these results and protecting the public treasury from ingenious devices of unscrupulous men, we confidently submit for the office of Comptroller the name of GEORGE H. PURSER, whose integrity, intelligence and experience has been established in every public position which he has occupied, and to his ability, independence and untiring industry the community may safely confide the important and onerous duties of this office.

Resolved, That ISAAC TOWNSEND, nominated for Almshouse Governor, is eminently entitled to the warm and zealous support of the Democratic Party; intelligent, faithful and courteous in the discharge of the gratuitous duties of his office, he has ever maintained a deep devotion to the principles and candidates of the Democracy.

Resolved, That the industrious effort of some of the prominent Federal office-holders in this City to defeat the regular Democratic candidates for Comptroller and Almshouse Governor, and by the support of another ticket indirectly confer upon a Republican the office of Comptroller, with all its power and patronage, must be regarded as a gross outrage on the Democratic Party, and especially on that portion of influential, honest and intelligent men deriving their support from the legitimate business of the Municipal Government.

Resolved, That at this crisis, when the State Legislature is notoriously in the hands of our political opponents, and prepared to enact laws absorbing and regulating the powers properly vested in the people of this City, it is of the highest importance, by uniting exertions, to elect an important officer of the City Government and frustrate the existing designs of our common opponent to concentrate in a Republican incumbent some of the chief powers and duties now exercised or imposed on the Common Council and the Departments.

Resolved, That experience and system, as well as fidelity and honesty, are qualities essential in the successful discharge of the duties of Comptroller, and no mere reform can discover and correct the gross prevailing abuses, and satisfy the just expectation of our fellow-citizens, unless based upon a practical and familiar knowledge of the machinery of the Municipal Government; and our candidate on this occasion has been selected on the Jeffersonian motto of "Is he honest? Is he capable?"

Resolved, That we recommend to our fellow Democrats in the several Wards to be vigilant and untiring in their exertions to organize and unite the Democratic Party for the coming contest, convinced that such efforts cannot fail to result in a victory not less important to the interests of the City than to the union and power of the Democracy.

Mr. CONRAD SWACKHAMER inside the first speech, in which he was deemed to an interruption still more aggravated than that endured by the Chairman.

The red-shirted personage, who looked to be a youth of 21 or so, and was infuriated with drink, rushed wildly back into the room, leaped on the platform and commenced a general onslaught, which ended in his and five or six others being thrown in a heap from the platform to the floor. Here the scuffle was renewed with terrific violence, and ended in a second withdrawal of the offender in the consoling arms of his friends.

The row being for the time over,

The Chairman called on the Hon. JOHN KELLY to appear.

Mr. KELLY stepped on the platform amid vehement cheers. He said: I did not come among you to-night, my friends, with the intention of saying anything; but since the commencement of my political career I have always followed a straightforward course, and there is no impropriety, therefore, in my now presenting myself here in compliance with your call. I commenced my career in Tammany Hall, and until she changes her politics, until she changes hopelessly to something that I cannot conceive to be right, I mean to pursue it here. Yet I must say that there are many things done here that are wrong, but it is not the way to beat the enemy of the Democratic Party by sowing the seeds of dissension among the Democrats outside of this Hall. [Applause.]

A VOICE—Isn't it better to have a bad Democrat than a good Whig?

ANOTHER VOICE—You shut up. Let's have a good Democrat.

A THIRD VOICE—Won't you give a little, please, about '56.

Mr. KELLY (resuming)—We have passed through a canvass with bad political enemies of our party and we have been successful. The issues on which we conquered are the same now as then. Why, then, should we not, as good Democrats, unite as heartily in winning the election of our candidates for Charter officers as we did in winning the election for County officers. [Cheers.] Your candidate for Comptroller has opposed to him not only your enemies politically but some of those belonging to the Democratic party, who have circulated the story that he was the author of a pamphlet that was printed many years ago, slanting a certain class of people in this community, and upholding a woman of vile and infamous character. When that gentleman, then assailed, was a candidate for Alderman of the Fourth Ward, I believe these charges were refuted. I recollect very well everything in relation to them. I recollect that there were many affidavits published regarding this matter, and I satisfied my mind, as I hope every honest man who would deal with these charges impartially has satisfied me, that they are false and cannot be substantiated in any way. Mr. PURSER, my friends, has his faults. There is no politician of any standing who has not faults. But let me implore every good man, every man who desires the welfare of his party and the good of this community, not to assail a fellow-citizen, though he be a politician, in the manner in which Mr. PURSER has been assailed, by false impositions and assertions utterly without proof. With these remarks I intend to offer this resolution, and then close. And I trust that every gentleman who loves the honor and integrity of his party, who has her prosperity at heart, and hopes to see her enemies confounded, will sustain the Democratic nominees with all his might and main, and, then, if there be errors in this hall, it is the duty of the gentlemen who heretofore have controlled it, to make an effort after this election to redeem the character of this hall, and to redeem the character of the Democratic Party from the infamous position in which it has been placed by those who have control of this organization. [Cheers.] I do not apply these remarks to any gentleman in particular. I take some of the blame to myself. I say, then, that if we desire our party to be successful in future canvasses it is our duty to sustain its nominees now, and when this election is over, I trust that a general effort will be made to reorganize the Democratic Party here and place it upon a fair and equitable basis. [Cheers.]

Again the madman in the red shirt rushed through the crowd, like a Malay running a muck; then mounted the platform, and fought fiercely for several minutes. The confusion was indescribable, and the affray threatened to exceed itself into a general melee. About a couple of dozen persons on the rear of the platform were tugging, wrestling, and striking each other, the crowd below was all excitement, and above the din could be heard the voice of the fellow in red, screaming, "I'll fight you! I'll fight you or any man! I'll fight any man in this crowd!"

Again about half a dozen of the rioters were thrown on, or tumbled on the floor, and again the fighting was renewed there, and continued on round the room, and up to the door, down the stairs, and into the bar-room, and out into the street, where it culminated in a regular drunken battle, of which the results were five or six black eyes and bloody noses. Strange to say—perhaps, indeed, the fact ought to excite no surprise—there was not a policeman to be seen at any time, either in the Hall, or in its vicinity, from the beginning of the meeting till its close.

Quiet having at length been restored, Mr. KELLY wound up by offering the following resolution:

Resolved, That the desperate and unprincipled efforts employed to defame the character of GEORGE H. PURSER, merits and receives our deepest indignation and contempt. Known and respected in the Fourth Ward from his early youth, no Democrat will be found ignorant or credulous enough to believe that he led or incited mobs against "Churches or Bishops" of any denomination, or conspired with a notorious and degraded woman in the preparation of an infamous polemical romance. Citizens by birth or adoption are too intelligent and honest to be made the instruments of malignant and artful slanderers, and will vindicate at the approaching election the private and public character of our candidate for Comptroller.

This was adopted amid applause and loud cheering for JOHN KELLY.

The Hon. C. FIELD was the last speaker. He eulogized Mr. PURSER as being eminently qualified in every way to fill the office of Comptroller, and predicted that if he be elected the taxes, which now weigh so heavily on all, directly or indirectly, will be largely lessened. Mr. FIELD was frequently cheered.

When he had concluded, the Chairman rose and announced, though it was now but 9 o'clock, that the meeting was adjourned.

AMERICAN CONVENTION—NOMINATIONS FOR COMPTROLLER AND GOVERNOR OF THE ALMSHOUSE.

The American City Convention had an adjourned meeting last evening, at the Hall No. 303 Bowery, for the purpose of nominating candidates for Comptroller and Governor of the Almshouse. Two ballots were had, the last of which resulted in the nomination of ROBERT T. HAWS (Republican nominee) for Comptroller. The votes stood:

	1st vote.	2d vote.
R. T. Haws	28	40
George W. Morton	20	1
J. R. Leveridge	12	12

Mr. F. C. WAGNER was afterwards nominated by acclamation for Governor of the Almshouse, and the Convention then adjourned.

REPUBLICAN CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

A special meeting of this Committee was held last evening at No. 616 Broadway. A draft of an address to the voters of the City, with reference to the coming election, was submitted by Mr. BOTS, of the Thirteenth Ward, and adopted. A discussion occurred in relation to certain alleged irregularities by the Twenty-first Ward Association, but the matter was postponed for further consideration. After some other unimportant business had been acted on the Committee adjourned.

A WORKINGMEN'S MEETING.

The workingmen held a meeting last evening at No. 475 Pearl-street, for the purpose of expressing their feelings in regard to the forthcoming election. It was not largely attended. Mr. JOHN BRADY was chosen Chairman, and made a lengthy speech, advocating the necessity of the workingmen ceasing to be further governed and hoodwinked by designing politicians, and advising that they should hereafter so work as to support their own interests by voting for no one who was not favorable to the interests of the workingmen.

Remarks of similar purport were made by Colonel DOWLING and Messrs. MCCARTHY and WALFORD, and, after the adoption of resolutions expressive of the sense of those present, the meeting adjourned.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOL EXHIBITION.

Interesting Scene at the Cooper Institute—Large Attendance of Children—Speech of Peter Cooper.

A grand reception was yesterday extended to Mr. PETER COOPER by the children and teachers of the public schools of the City at the Lecture-room of the Institute. The first three grammar classes of nearly all the schools were present, numbering about 3,000 scholars and teachers. The exercises began at 3 o'clock, and consisted of addresses interspersed with music—Mr. VILAKOVA presiding at the Alexandre organ, and Mr. TIMM at the piano. A quartette, composed of two ladies and two gentlemen from the Mendelssohn Union, led by Mr. CAMP, sung two pieces; and Miss ELIZA A. MAHER sang one solo, accompanied by the organ.

The exercises were opened by WM. JAY HASKINS, Esq., who read the 24th Psalm; after which he introduced Mr. COOPER, who, as he came forward, was greeted with prolonged cheers by the multitude of juveniles present. Mr. COOPER then spoke as follows:

For one, I envy not the man who can stand unmoved in the presence of such a scene as this.

What sight is there in all the wide range of human observation so well calculated as this to stir the deepest feelings of our hearts with profound anxiety and concern for the future welfare of this vast company of the young?

Who is there that has ever trod the slippery paths of youth that would not gladly place a lamp in their path and a light to their feet to guide them amidst the dazzling dangers that will beset them on every hand?

Who is there, or where is the person, who could stand unmoved, or look with indifference, and see a company like this just taking their passage to make a voyage round the world?

How anxiously would each and all inquire after the safety and soundness of the vessel in which they were about to embark!

How anxiously would all inquire as to what provision they had made to meet and overcome the dangers that they are sure to encounter on the passage. If, my young friends, I should now assure you that the smallest child within the sound of my voice has already entered on a voyage more difficult and dangerous than it would be to make a passage round the world, how astonished would you be!

Yes, my young friends, I can assure you that each one of us is already afloat upon the great ocean of life, and we are compelled, by our very existence, to make our passage, not only around the world, but through it, which is a much more difficult task.

To make this voyage in safety, we require a sound, strong and substantial vessel—by which I mean a sound, strong and healthy body—one whose timbers are not weakened by the gnawing worms of excess.

Perhaps you may not be aware how important it is to put a sheathing of copper on ships to prevent the little worms from entering and eating out their strength—so that the vessel will not break in pieces on an open sea. So it will be with us if we do not sheath our little vessels with true knowledge, by which alone we can keep out bad passions and bad habits, that will eat out our strength and leave us a miserable wreck on the shore of life.

I said we need a healthy body in order to make a safe, comfortable passage through life. And I hope we may one and all remember that "Health consists with temperance alone.

And peace, O Virtue, peace is all thine own."

We need, on this voyage, a compass, quadrant, chronometer, barometer and chart, with knowledge sufficient to use them with skill, so as to clear those rocks and whirlpools of fashion that have engulphed so many, whose eyes, like yours, have sparkled with brightness and beauty, and whose faces, like yours, have beamed with hope and expectation of future happiness through life.

Yes, my young friends, we all need to watch our compass, with its trembling needle to guide us in the path of truth and duty, and to strengthen us with a resolute determination to give the world an equivalent, in some form of useful labor, for all we consume in it, and then to HAVE the important, equivalent, to come, no man anything but the good we can do. You will need to use constantly your compass, chronometer, barometer and chart, by which I mean the knowledge you now have the opportunity to acquire, to enable you to steer your course in safety, and find out what you are, and where you are drifting on the great ocean of life. You will need also your spy-glass of perception and calculation to enable you to see danger at a distance, as well as to discover and ascertain what there is in reality beautiful and good to be obtained. The mariner requires a barometer—an instrument so extremely sensitive that it measures the weight of the atmosphere, and thus enables him to prepare for storms that might otherwise destroy his vessel.

The barometer is a beautiful instrument; as an emblem it shows an all-surrounding pressure or atmosphere through which comes that still small voice, that speaks to the intelligent heart, giving ideas of what is just and right, and is our happiness to be watched with care and used on all occasions. That still small voice is constantly telling us to do unto others as we would that others should do unto us. This precept is for us the true barometer of life. It will, if wisely used, enable us to measure and weigh the pressure of those surrounding circumstances that have made us to differ from every other human being. A true knowledge of the power that circumstances are constantly exerting is calculated to inspire us with charity for the faults and follies of those around us. It was this knowledge that enabled Christ to say of his murdering enemies, "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do." It is the power to use this compass, this chronometer, quadrant and chart, I mean the power to follow the glorious example of Christ, who, when a child, grew in knowledge and in stature, and in favor with God and man.

He, by doing always those things that are well pleasing to his Father, and our Father—by doing always to others as he would that others should do unto him, he was enabled to overcome all evil, and although tempted in all points as we are, yet He lived without sin.

It is our highest wisdom to follow His lovely example, by avoiding all that is wrong, and by doing what good we can in the world. It is our privilege always to steer our course by this compass of truth and duty. It is the power to apply all mechanical and chemical combination, by which it is made our duty, as it is our highest interest, to subject the earth, the air, and the ocean to our use. It is this mighty power, rightly and wisely applied, that dignifies and elevates man above the level of the brute, and shows him to be, in reality, but "a little lower than the angels."

What could have been done for us more than to give us the world and all that in it is, and only require of us that we should keep, subdue and hold dominion, in order to find a good in the right and wise application and use of every thing throughout all the great garden of the world? To do this you will require all the knowledge and all the wisdom that is possible to be obtained. To aid you in the pursuit of knowledge, the Board of Education has invited you here with all the evidences of your progress and skill, that you may stimulate each other to improve the opportunity you now enjoy to prepare for a safe, useful, happy and prosperous passage through life. Then will the star of hope shine with ever-brightening splendor on our way, showing the wisdom, the power, and the goodness of the Father of All, "by connecting this, our greatest virtue, with our greatest bliss," and by making

"Our own bright prospect to be blest,

Our strongest motive to assist the rest."

The Committee of the Board of Education have conferred on me the honor to present to you the rewards of merit. They are rewards provided for those who have excelled in any of the various departments of useful knowledge. Knowledge, my young friends, is a tremendous power for good or for evil—for good when rightly and wisely applied to the varied uses and purposes of life; with it you may unlock the great storehouse of nature and draw from its inexhaustible fountains all that is good for food, and pleasant to the eye, and calculated to make us wise.

I trust the day will come when the halls of this building will be continually thronged by thousands in the eager pursuit of knowledge—by those who will here catch the inspiration of truth in all its native power and beauty, and find in it an inexpressible pleasure to spread its transforming influence around the world. Then will my fondest hopes be realized, and I shall rejoice that my labor has not been in vain.

If it were possible, my young friends, I would write such a resolution in letters of light on every heart. I would impress it as the safest and surest means by which to secure for ourselves, and those we love, health, peace and competence through life. To strengthen and give force to such a resolution, I will ask you to look, as you walk the streets, at the many poor and wretched, whose trembling limbs are begging bitter bread from Charity's cold hand. I will ask you to guard yourselves against such a terrible misfortune. I will urge you to avoid those useless and injurious habits of smoking and chewing tobacco, and drinking liquor. Habits that are now taxing a large part of the youth of our City to an amount sufficient (if the sum was wisely invested) to secure to each in old age a house and home, so indispensable to the happiness of all. The poet declared an important truth when he said: "The man who contemplates his home by vigorous efforts and an honest aim, at once draws the lot of life and death, and walks with Nature in the paths of peace."

The address was listened to with deep interest, and elicited at its close the applause of the hearers.

TWO FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENTS.

ACCIDENT ON THE HUDSON RIVER RAILROAD.

On Thursday evening the 5 o'clock Express train ran over and killed a Mr. GEORGE BLACK and his wife, a short distance from Tarrytown, near Ex-Mayor KINGSLAND's residence.

It seems they were walking up the track for the purpose of calling upon some friends living on Mr. KINGSLAND's place.

The wind was blowing from the northwest, and it was somewhat dark at the time the accident occurred. The engineer did not know of the accident until it was telegraphed from Tarrytown to Poughkeepsie. Mr. and Mrs. BLACK were residents of Tarrytown, and both members of the Methodist Protestant Church.

An inquest was held upon the bodies this morning, and a verdict given exonerating the engineer from all blame, and from all the evidence they could obtain it seems that it was purely accidental. The remains were placed in the charge of the undertaker, Mr. JOHN VANDERBILT, for interment.

ACCIDENT ON THE OHIO CENTRAL RAILROAD.

About 3 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon last, Mr. MILLER, a mail-agent in the employ of the Ohio Central Railroad Company, was missed from the car. Supposing that he had fallen from the car, the train was instantly stopped. It was then backed slowly, when the body of the unfortunate man was found near a woodpile, about six miles from Columbus, torn and mangled in a horrible manner—so much so that it was almost impossible to lift him up and place him in the car without pieces falling from the body. Singular to relate, he was alive when found, but insensible. He lived about three minutes after he was placed in the car. The accident must have happened in this manner. Along the track for a considerable distance is a wood-pile, so near the track that, a gentleman informed our reporter, he did not believe that there was four inches between the pile and the cars. He is supposed to have stood at the open door of the car, when his clothing was caught in the wood, thus dragging him from the car, and crushing him in this small space.

Mr. MILLER was a highly-esteemed citizen of Baltimore, and leaves a wife and five children. It is rather a singular fact that, just before the accident occurred, the unhappy man was telling some friends of a very narrow escape he once had while traveling in the cars.

ANOTHER ACCIDENT—THREE PERSONS INJURED.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]

ROUSE'S POINT, N. Y., Friday, Nov. 26.

Last evening, the train from Godenesburg for this place was thrown from the track near Madrid by a broken rail. Capt. C. P. GEER, of CHENEY, FISKE & Co.'s Express, and a Mr. POWELL, of Madrid, were badly hurt; the conductor, E. P. BARNY, was also severely bruised, but came on with his train.

BROOKLYN INTELLIGENCE.

A SEA CAPTAIN IN TROUBLE.—ALLEGED BIGAMY.—A few days ago, Captain WILLIAM MCGILL, in the employ of the Black Ball line-of-packet ships, was arrested and brought before Justice BLAGGLEY on a charge of having one more wife than the law allows. The complainant in this case was an Irish girl, about 17 years of age. She states that she came to this country on board of the ship commanded by defendant; that on the passage, under a promise of marriage, he accomplished her ruin. Arriving in New-York, they took rooms as husband and wife, and were subsequently married in New-Jersey. Last week he deserted her, and while in pursuit of him she, for the first time, discovered that he had a wife and several children residing in South Brooklyn. On Sunday night last she darkened his door with her presence, and the result was she was most unceremoniously turned into the street. The disturbance caused by this proceeding attracted the attention of Officer BRANNIGAN, of the Third Precinct Police, and he arrested Captain MCGILL and both of his wives, and marched them off to the Station-house, where cross complaints were made for assault and battery, and a charge of bigamy was preferred by the girl against the captain. The latter charge was examined before Judge BLAGGLEY when it appearing that the offence was committed in New-Jersey, the accused was discharged. Subsequently the proper papers were taken out in New-Jersey for the arrest of the gallant Captain, but he has not yet been secured.

BARING BROTHERS & CO.

American Securities.

Messrs. D. Sears, Son & Co. report as follows:

The improvements of the Stock Market received per Africa from New-York, have had a very favorable influence upon our market, and imparted to it an unusual degree of animation. There has been a general demand for all descriptions of State Stocks, and a considerable business has been done in them. Pennsylvania, Maryland and Virginia Bonds have been sought in request, whilst some large purchases have been made of the new Federal Five per Cent. Bonds. Owing to the wise caution which capitalists have exercised in respect to Railroad Securities, the market for them is still dull, notwithstanding, in some instances, better reports and higher prices from New-York.

THE NEW-YORK TIMES.

NEW-YORK, SATURDAY, NOV. 27, 1858.

[illegible]

[illegible] by the Committee, was presented against them by the Committee, was opposed without much opposition. A resolution directing the Street Commissioner to have the ruins of the Crystal Palace removed, and to advertise for plans for erecting a [illegible] on its site, was presented and referred. A communication from the Mayor, urging the necessity of improving the condition of the Bone pavement, was referred to the Committee on Streets.

President HASWELL offered a resolution in the Board of Counsellmen last evening, directing the Street Commissioner to report the cause of the delay in repairing the City Hall. It was adopted. Several unimportant vetoes with regard to paving sidewalks and changing the grade of streets were received from Mayor TIEMANN.

The Board of Supervisors, yesterday, adopted a resolution directing the Committee on Criminal Courts and Police, to inquire who appointed Officer BAKER, from whose custody Dr. GALLAGHER escaped; whether the Policeman was a proper person to retain the office which he occupies, and whether the appointing power should not be taken from the Judges of the Court of Sessions and placed in other hands.

The investigation into the circumstances connected with the escape of Dr. GALLAGHER from the custody of Officer BAKER, on Saturday night last, was concluded yesterday before Recorder HAMAKER. Altogether nine witnesses were examined, including BAKER himself, but no evidence of a sufficiently conclusive nature to fix upon that officer the charge of bribery of which he has been suspected, was elicited, and the Recorder was unable from the present aspect of the case, to decide whether he was chargeable with corruption or stupidity; whether he had been bought or sold. It is the Recorder's intention, however, to dismiss him from the Court of Sessions during the period that he occupies the Bench. Whether Judge RUSSELL will also do his part to punish such a gross violation of duty, remains to be seen.

There was a grand ovation extended to PETER COOPER, yesterday, by three thousand of the scholars and teachers of the Grammar School, on account of the liberality extended to them in the use of the Institute for the use of the exhibition of the public schools. Mr. COOPER made an address of some length, which was received with great favor by the audience. The exercises were varied by singing and instrumental music.

The Hibernia Engine Company, of Philadelphia, left Boston yesterday morning for home, and passed through this City in the afternoon. They arrived at Newark about 9 o'clock last night, and were received by the firemen there in torchlight procession.

Injured Innocence.

It may startle some of our readers to know that the Union of these States no longer exists. The catastrophe by which this long threatened dissolution of the great confederacy, so fondly founded by our honest though mistaken fathers, has been brought about, was equally unexpected and tremendous. It was nothing less than the performance by a Judge in Alabama of his solemn duty. Accustomed as we long have been to the peculiar conceptions of official obligation and general jurisprudence which obtain in that enlightened region of our common country, we own ourselves hardly surprised that some extraordinary convulsion should have followed upon such a phenomenon. Yet we may feel regret when we cannot indulge wonder; and as we really had not altogether given over the destinies of the Republic, we must admit that it grieves us sorely to lose the banbered star of Alabama from that glorious constellation in the midst of which our eagle flies and soars. When JEFFERSON DAVIS, like a dire comet fringed with fire, threatened the other day to whirl the sister-planet Mississippi from our sky, we remonstrated as earnestly as decorum would permit with that formidable chief. We should have remonstrated now with the stern soul of Mobile, were not the mischief past praying for. We can, therefore, but sit down, opento capite, with our hats over our eyes, and burying our hands in our breeches pockets await the crack of doom. The split that has begun at the mouth of the Tombigbee must widen to the Lakes, and there is an end of all things near at hand. Partisan spirits might seek consolation in the thought that at least the great army of office-holders will be turned adrift; that now there are no more United States there will be no more Collectors, no more Attorneys-General, no more Postmasters; that the Cushings, the Schells, the Fowlers, will all alike be driven into Arcadian life, and exchange the Government organ for the shepherd's pensive pipe. But we cannot decline upon such paltry thoughts from the height of our great national misfortune. We are a sundered people, sawn in two like the Jewish prophet, but by no Pagan hands. They were Israelites also who have done this thing.

The throne of Louis PHILIPPE was overthrown in the office of the Paris Nationale. The American Union has been crumpled up, like Russia in the hand of RICHARD COBDEN, by the Editor of the Mobile Register. And "for cause." Does the reader, recovering a little from the shock of this direful calamity, ask why it has come upon him, upon us, upon the nation, lately so rejoicing in its strength—so proud to run its race from the Arctic to the Antarctic Zone? The answer is very simple, if very sad. It was because the President of the United States would neither allow the editor of the Mobile Register to carry a small negro of his to Nicaragua, nor permit some friends in Cuba to bring other small negroes to Mobile. The trifling sacrifices made by a few misguided persons at Bunker's Hill, Valley Forge, Yorktown and other more or less obscure and rustic spots near a century ago—the memories of national growth, and glory and misfortune spread over a half century of marvelous advance—the rank won by thirty confederated States in the hierarchy of the world—all, all are forgotten by the advanced Mobile guard of the sacred institution of Patriarchal Domestic Supervision in his disgust at the low price of cotton and the high price of niggers. "Disunion and its consequences," he cries, "we accept, since we cannot bring hither the labor necessary for our prosperity, and are denied the right to resort to a country where the supply may be less hampered by artificial restraints." Hence these bitter tears! hence these loud outcries! hence this enthusiasm for the freedom and the fatness of Nicaragua.

There was a doubt once as to the real object of Mr. WILLIAM WALKER's extreme anxiety to renew his acquaintance with his friends in Nicaragua, after they had rather peremptorily kicked him out of doors. But now we get at the core of the whole matter. Gentlemen in Alabama and elsewhere, who would like the license of piracy at home, and are debarred from it by a squeamish Government, and a benighted public opinion, are anxious to establish themselves in Nicaragua with a view to the escaling of degrees "unhampered by any artificial restraints." With this intention the laws of the United States do not harmonize, and, after they had taken the trouble to get a Judge appointed over them expressly to remove this silly obstacle—behold that very Judge himself turns round upon them, "Sits the porcullis fall," and raves about duty and the Constitution! Can we longer wonder that they should drop indignantly out of a Union which so little appreciates them, and affords no survey a range to their dearest proclivities? Miserable as we are in the condition to which then have reduced us, we seem to see before us yet a deeper gulf. Fond example will bring on the natural fruits. Here in New-York, for instance, we have, in long past, [illegible] increasing population of persons who, like the Mobile Register and its friends, feel it hard to "secure what is necessary for their purposes," by reason of the law's obstructions. Many of them are put to the greatest straits to circumvent these obstructions. They are obliged to purchase centre bits, dark lanterns, revolvers, crow-bars, and all sorts of utensils for the purpose of penetrating the barriers set up by custom and the law between themselves and the very articles of taste or use which they lack for their private comfort. And, although at last, in some fortunate instances, they have succeeded in acquiring a sufficient supply of spoons, or forks, or gold watches, or cash, the chances are ten to one that some brute of a Judge, elected perhaps by their own votes only a few months before, will have the confidence to interfere, and send them packing into some dreary laborious place, from which egress will be denied to them for weeks, months or years at a time. What is to hinder a secession from the State of New-York of these injured innocents. Their case is as bad,—their cause as good, as the case and cause for which the Mobile Register is willing to turn over Mount Vernon to the Philistines, and to make Lexington a howling wilderness. Our only security is that, as a rule, our Judges are less bigoted in their notions of Judicial duty than Judge CAMPBELL appears to be.

But it may happen after all that we are mistaken in supposing the Union ended. We merely infer that when our friends at Mobile declare themselves the spat-upon, kicked and abused of the earth, they must at once relieve themselves from the risk of expectoration, blows and foul usage. If it should prove that we are hasty in this inference—that the stars and stripes still wave over the Mobile Custom-house, and still protect the Court of Judge CAMPBELL—why then we shall be very grateful for a great mercy, and shall carefully forbear from alluding to the story of that ancient Pistol, of whom SHAKESPEARE tells us that, when the leek he had refused was pressed upon him by Fleullen, he wisely disremembered his "brave words," and "swore and ate!"

The Pardoning Power.

We published yesterday morning a statement from the Governor's Private Secretary of the reasons for the pardon of JACKSON, who had been convicted and sentenced for a brutal outrage upon an emigrant girl. The whole case resolves itself into this: that the Judge who presided at the trial, the Jury who convicted JACKSON, and a great multitude of respectable citizens, including the Rev. Dr. BETHUNE and other clergymen, united in representing to the Governor that the man's guilt was by no means clear, that the girl was pretty evidently guilty of perjury, and that JACKSON had already been sufficiently punished for whatever offence he had actually committed. These volunteer statements, resting upon no legal evidence, and elicited by we know not what kind of influences, were allowed to override the solemn judgment of the Court of law, and open the prison doors which our forms of justice had closed upon a convicted offender.

We are not prepared to say that the Governor has acted wrongfully. He is allowed by the Constitution to pardon convicts at discretion. He is accountable to nobody for his acts,—is not bound by any kind or degree of evidence, and but for the demands of the Newspaper Press would never have condescended to assign the reasons of his conduct. We understand perfectly the difficulties of his position, and we are, therefore, the more earnest in repeating the necessity we have already urged of relieving him from them by some definite legal provision. There is neither justice nor public security in leaving this power of indiscriminate pardon in the hands of any man. It is exercised capriciously,—sometimes on grounds of evidence, sometimes from strenuous personal solicitation, and sometimes, possibly at least, from political or other corrupt influences. It destroys all public confidence in our Courts of law, and saps the sense of responsibility in our Courts and Juries. What business had this Jury to convict JACKSON if he was not guilty? If the witness against him was perjured, why did they not ascertain that fact? To say that they could not, is simply to say that our boasted Trial by Jury is a delusion and a farce.

As our criminal Courts are now constituted and conducted, we confess it is absolutely necessary to confide the pardoning power to somebody. But it should be in hands that will exercise it with discretion, with steady and uniform regard to justice and to law, and upon certain established and understood principles of proceeding. We should either have a distinct Court of Pardons, or we should permit existing Courts of law to exercise a wider discretion in the infliction of punishment. Some provision is certainly needed to protect our criminal jurisprudence from the absolute disgrace into which it is rapidly falling.

Russia and New-York.

The letter of our correspondent at St. Petersburg, published in yesterday's TIMES, foreshadows the important changes which mark the new era of Russian civilization. Among other reforms, the Judiciary is proposed to be reorganized, and trial by Jury inaugurated—it having been found that, "without a clear, concise, equitable administration of justice, all other reforms of a national bearing are out of the question."

It is well known that American precedents are held in favor in Russia. We could wish that a better model were presented in the working of our Judiciary and jury systems than that furnished in this City. Unfortunately, if the Russian reformers who should study our institutions would find with none of the "clear, concise, equitable administration of justice" in New-York than in St. Petersburg. He would stumble on Courts conducted in [illegible] the world of other Courts; Judges who [illegible] in [illegible] with the counsel rather than the bar; officers of Courts insulting the Bench; District-Attorneys receiving complaints by the [illegible] upon such cases as a single witness; [illegible] executions unsatisfied, when issued against the privileged class of dealers in hot rum; policemen fraternizing with their respectable customers, if not facilitating their escape; and Governors interposing at last, if some unlucky dog does reach the State Prison, with mistaken clemency. With all the "deplorable corruption" which is a prominent element in the Courts of the Empire," it may be doubted whether Russia would gain essentially by exchanging to our system—unless she has better men to administer it.

But Russia is afflicted with another chronic evil, which the Emperor is attempting to grapple with, and it is one to which we are not strangers in this land. It is the legacy of hereditary [illegible] handed out to individuals—"the whole system a terrible scourge to the country." "The Emperor," it seems, "has ordered that the millions the treasury derives from this [illegible] compensate for the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

THE NEW-YORK GENERAL ARSENAL.—So far as we can learn, little has been an inquiry into the cause of the recent falling of the roof of the new building in Fifth-avenue. Yet such an inquiry should be had, not only to fix the responsibility of the disaster where it belongs, but as a precaution for the future. Mr. L. A. Gonon, a practical architect, of Twenty-fourth-street, informs us that, on the 27th of October, he accepted of an invitation to examine the building, and informed a number of persons that the roof would not sustain the weight to which it would be subjected, and told the carpenter, Mr. W. P. Holmes, that it would certainly give way. He also called the builder's attention to the subject, pointing out the weak spots, and adding that, even if it should prove capable of supporting the dead weight bearing upon it, the first time the room was filled with men drilling it would come down. These warnings were given, previous to the catastrophe. The whole matter certainly demands an investigation.

TRIAL OF SMITH'S STREET-SWEEPING MACHINE. Smith's Street-sweeping Machine was tried yesterday on cobble-stone pavement for the benefit of the Common Sanitary Committee. Senators MARNIX and BAY and General P. M. WARNER witnessed its performances. The trial took place in Canal-street. To loosen up the dirt and give the brooms a better chance a sprinkling cart moistened the street beforehand, but unfortunately too abundantly. The machine was run up and down the block several times, taking off the surface-dirt very thoroughly, but only plastering up the interstices between the cobble stones. Mercantile men then experimented on it. Here the trial was much more successful. It swept as thoroughly as such would have done, leaving only those places which needed a hoe to loosen up the accumulated filth. An overwhelming cloud of dust was stirred up by it. But this will easily be obviated by a moderate use of the sprinkling-cart. After the Committee expressed themselves sufficiently enlightened with regard to the operations of the sweeper, Mr. S. brought out another machine he has never before tried. It is designed to take up the dirt, or deposit it in boxes as the machine moves along. The brooms, which are arranged in the same manner as on the other machine, carry the dust into a box next to the forward axle of the wagon. The contrivance seemed to carry out the design of the inventor. Some animated discussions arose during the progress of the trial between Messrs. Dewaine and Baker—Mr. D. asserting very positively that the machine was excellent for Rue and Belgian pavements, but that it would never do for cobble stones; and Mr. B. claiming just as positively that it would work well on both.

ARREST OF MR. JAMES GORDON BENNETT.—The editor of the Herald was arrested yesterday morning, on an indictment found against him by the Grand Jury of Westchester County, for an alleged libel published in that paper, in June last, on Mr. JOHN B. HASKIN, charging that gentleman with having forged the records of the Willett's Point Committee, of which he was Chairman. Officer GARRISON came from White Plains, yesterday, with a warrant for Mr. BENNETT's arrest, which—as indorsed by Recorder RECORDER, so as to give it validity in this County. The officer then proceeded to Mr. BENNETT's hotel, and notified him that he was a prisoner. He was allowed, however, to retire to the custody of the officer, to the Herald Office, for the transaction of business, and afterwards proceeded to confer with his lawyer on the subject of procuring bail in Westchester County, and repairing with the same to White Plains.

HEALTH OF GENERAL PAGE.—General PAGE has not suffered as severely from his fall as the fears of his friends led them to suppose. He was yesterday more comfortable—an inflammation having taken place in the wounded member. His physicians, however, advise that he should wait a few days before attempting a journey. No definite orders have yet been received from Washington as to the detension of the Atlanta and Gladiator, but advices, it is expected, will be telegraphed to-day. General SANFORD has issued an order, countermanding the parade in honor of General PAGE, until further orders.

RETURN OF THE HIBERNIA ENGINE COMPANY FROM BOSTON.—The Hibernia Engine Company, of Fremont, returned to this City in the train from Boston that arrived at Twenty-seventh-street at 5 P. M. They were received on their arrival by Americus Engine Company No. 6, and Warren Hose Company No. 23. From the cars they were escorted to No. 376 house, No. 118 Sullivan-street, where a bountiful collation was in readiness. After ample justice had been done to the good things, Mr. No. 10, presented the Hibernia Company with an exceedingly thought-of lamp-frame as a token of esteem. The speaker remarked that No. 10 had attained the pre-eminence as the plume company of the New-York Fire Department, as they had never been beaten in a race to a fire, although they had hard pushed. Col. FOOT, of the Hibernia, responded the gifted and responded in appropriate terms. During the remarks he was loudly cheered. The line of march was resumed, and purchasers, by way of Canal-street, Broadway, to Grand, thence to Hudson-street to the Jersey City ferry, where the engineers parted, and the Hibernia Company proceeded to Newark, where they will be received by the Legislative Company of that city. To-night they will return home, and will be received by the three companies in a torch-light procession.

HOW TO PREVENT HORSES FALLING ON THE PAVEMENT.—The smoothness of Broadway causes thousands of disagreeable and disastrous accidents to horses, all of which can be prevented. The surface can be made rough enough. Before the Mechanics' Club of the American Institute, some months ago, it was proposed to construct road wagons, having movable upright stumpers, shod with steel points, to be operated by the motion of the wheels, and to be drawn by horses through our streets like any other wagon, picking the pave-stones as deeply and thickly as desired. Now steel points would be always ready to take the place of those that become dull. A small depth of picking is all that is required to render the pavement sufficiently rough to prevent horses falling. The wagons to which we refer may be driven by one man, and would not interfere with the business of the street at all. Nor can it cost any more than an omnibus. The great excellency of the plan consists in its economy, and in its not at all hindering our incessant travel over the pavement.

THE SAILOR'S HOME.—This Institution, at No. 190 Cherry-street, in this City, established by the American Seamen's Friend Society, is being, by liberal subscriptions from the Insurance Companies and merchants of New-York, thoroughly repaired and refitted, and will, on Monday next, be reopened under the superintendence of Captains E. RICHARDSON and DOWNE WALDRON. This house has, during its existence of sixteen years, accommodated 50,000 seamen, and its benefits conferred upon them and thereby upon shipping interests are well known and acknowledged. We consider it among the most useful institutions which our City can boast, and trust that it will continue to meet the encouragement its object so richly deserves.

HUDSON RIVER RAILROAD.—On Monday next important changes will take effect in the running of the trains on this road. Among others, the Express Trains for Albany and Troy will leave Chambers-street Station at 6 A. M. and 4:30 P. M. Albany Mail train at 10:30 A. M. Express trains will leave East Albany at 10:45 A. M. and 5:45 P. M. Albany Mail train at 4 P. M.

PROBABLY A FATAL FALL.—Yesterday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, John HOUGHT, a carpenter by trade, fell from the bell-deck of the Jefferson Market tower, to the ground, a distance of fifty feet; and was so severely injured that his recovery is considered doubtful. The unfortunate man was employed on the extension of the height of the tower.

AN EX-THEATRICAL MANAGER IN THE PULPIT. On Sunday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, the Rev. EDWARD F. BRIGHAM, formerly an actor, will preach in the Fourth Baptist Church, (Dr. GILLETTE's,) in Twenty-fourth-street. His sermon will probably embrace the incidents in his personal experience, of which are deeply interesting. Those who have heard the young gentleman speak very fluently in the ordinary manner, in the pulpit, A large congregation may go to hear him, when he opens his mouth as the City pulpits, much to their gratification.

Police Intelligence.

A LAWYER SAILING UNDER FALSE COLORS.—Mr. Charles Breton Leslie is a young lawyer who has a mammoth shingle displayed in Wall-street, and is seemingly anxious to make his mark in the world. Curtis & Co. is the style of a firm who manufacture and sell patent medicines at No. 13 Cedar-street, the firm comprising two brothers, Jeremiah and George A., and Laura A., a sister. Not long ago a Mr. David Majoe procured an attachment upon their goods, and the same was duly levied by the Sheriff. The Curtices were displeased and sought redress in the Courts, employing Messrs. Abbott Brothers as their counsel. Mr. Charles Breton Leslie was retained as counsel by Mr. Majoe. The retained young counselor, anxious to make a good case for his client, thought the best way to achieve this end was to possess himself of all the points on the opposite side. He called on Miss Curtis of her residence in Brooklyn, representing himself as the of the Abbott brothers, and received from her a full and satisfactory statement of their side of the case. Miss C. that he wished to prepare an affidavit for her to sign. Relying on Miss C. that he would send for her when he had prepared the affidavit, he politely thanked her for her kindness and retreated his steps to his Wall-street office, with the mammoth sign in front. The deposition was discovered yesterday, and Charles Breton Leslie, Esq., was arrested and taken before Justice GROSSE of the Lower Police Court. The Justice could state nothing but a "misunderstanding" of it, and required him to give bail in $500—which he did.

VIOLENCE OF MISPLACED CONFIDENCE.—A stylish and gentlemanly-looking man a few weeks since called into the drug store of Mr. Wm. Robertson, in West Broadway. He gave his name as Dr. Frederick Houck, said he was a graduate of the College of Surgeons, London, was an expert chemist, and was possessed of secrets regarding the manufacture of brandies and other liquors unknown to any but himself. Mr. Robertson at once took him into his drug store and confidence, and gave the keys into his custody at night. A few mornings since, the stylish and learned Dr. Houck was missing, and with him some $600 worth of goods. The absconding confidence operator kept himself out of the way, but unfortunately for himself, and fortunately for the ends of justice, an officer came across him yesterday in Hudson-street and arrested him. The prisoner was committed to the Tombs by Justice Connolly. Mr. Myers Stearn, residing at No. 166 Christie-street, reported himself yesterday at the Police Court as being also a victim of misplaced confidence, the extent of which he was victimized being $1,200, and the alleged victimizers being Mr. George Myers and his daughter Elizabeth. Mr. Stearn says he left some trunks, containing $1,200 worth of silk fringes, velvets, gloves, &c., at the house of Mr. Myers, and he charges that the latter, aided by his daughter, broke open the trunk and possessed himself of the contents. The accused parties were held by Justice GROSSE.

THE BODY-SNATCHING CASE.—The examination in this case was resumed at 11 A. M. yesterday, before Justice WELSH. Dr. BOUTON, Deputy Coroner, was examined. He made a post mortem examination. As the body was not claimed within twenty-four hours after death, he gave it up for dissection, in accordance with the "Act for the Promotion of Medical Science," passed in 1854. The body was given to Dr. Tinnell, who had previously expressed his desire to get a sound subject for dissection, and who stipulated, at the time he received it, that he would keep it forty-eight hours awaiting a claimant. A. ORREY HALL, Esq., appeared for Dr. Tinnell, and submitted points embodying the law applicable to the case. Mr. Hall claimed that nothing had been done by any of the parties implicated in this so-called body-snatching case but what was fully warranted by the act of 1854. So far from it, the body had been kept waiting for a claimant 48 hours longer than the law required. When a claimant appeared, which was not until a week after death, the body was surrendered, although it had been partly dissected. There was no intention of doing, nor was there anything done, by Dr. Finnell, or any one else, except in accordance with law. Justice WELSH announced that he would give his decision in two or three days.

THE WESTFIELD BANK COUNTERFEIT.—Several arrests only have been made for passing the new counterfeits on the Westfield Bank, of Westfield, Mass., a description of which was given in yesterday's TIMES. The names of two of the prisoners are Wm. McGrady and Charles Butterfield. McGrady went into the liquor saloon of John Roach, No. 85 James-street, and received for one of the bills a hot punch and $4 90 in exchange for one of the bills. Butterfield executed the same financial exploit in the drinking-saloon of John Farley, No. 179 Chatham-street. Subsequently the two prisoners went on a traveling tour together, and performed similar feats in several drinking saloons in the Bowery and adjacent streets. A discovery that the bills were counterfeits soon brought the police on their tracks, and led to their arrest, their arraignment before Justice WELSH, and temporary lodgment in the Tombs to await a trial. The general notification given by the police telegraph prevented more of the bills being passed. Besides these, another arrest was made yesterday at Stapleton, Staten Island, in the person of Mrs. Mary Van Pelt, wife of J. H. Van Pelt, who resides on Hamilton-avenue, Brooklyn. The woman was arrested while attempting to pass a counterfeit $5 bill on the Westfield Bank at the store of Mr. H. Van Cilef, at Stapleton. She was committed for examination, by Justice WELSH, to the Richmond County Jail.

DANGEROUS ASSAULT WITH A KNIFE.—About 6 o'clock, last evening, a man named William Callender went to the residence of Wakeman Clark, No. 17 Lispenard-street, and rang the bell. A servant girl came to the door, who recognized Callender as an old acquaintance of the family; but in consequence, as she thought, of his being under the influence of liquor she refused him admittance. Callender forced himself inside of the door, and after much persuasion on his part the servant allowed him to go to the room occupied by Mr. Clark, who was reclining on a couch, being quite ill; Callender, as he entered the room, drew a large dirk knife and made an attempt to stab Mr. Clark, but he was kept at bay by the servant girl, who grappled with him; Mrs. Clark rushed into the room when Callender tried to stab her. As he made the attempt the lady screamed, when Callender got frightened and started down stairs, but was caught at the street door by Officer Kamp, who was attracted to the spot by the cries of the inmates of the house. The prisoner was taken to the Fifth Precinct Station-house and locked up. As he was on the way to the Station-house he threw away the dirk-knife, but it was secured.

FEARFUL DRAWBACK TO ENTERPRISE.—About 3 o'clock yesterday morning, Officer Cairnes of the First Ward Police—the officer who shot the longshoreman a few days since, and is now on duty again—discovered two men moving briskly about a horse and wagon, in the latter being at a standstill. Having a curiosity to ascertain what enterprise could call out at such an early hour the services of two men and a horse and cart, he advanced towards the men. Seeing the officer approaching them, the men immediately ceased their circumambient motion around the horse and vehicle, and started off in a straight line, and soon made themselves invisible. The cart proved to contain over a hundred dollars worth of cloth, and the sudden stoppage was caused by a breakage of the axletree. The cloth was doubtless the product of some burglary, and it is presumed that the horse and cart were not honestly come by. They were all taken to the First Ward Station-house for identification.

FOOLISHLY DISPLAYING HIS MONEY.—Michael Green Thursday evening stepped into a low groggery in Worth-st., called for a drink, and in paying for the same foolishly displayed a roll of bills. Dennis Boven saw the roll and a spirit of covetousness immediately possessed him—covetousness combined with a remarkable absence of conscientiousness. Boven followed Green from the premises, pursued him stealthily a block or two, and suddenly gave him a rap over the head with a club, putting Green on a parallel with the pavement. In a moment's time Boven had the aforesaid roll of bills in his possession, but he did not enjoy the pleasure of ownership long, for he soon found himself in possession of a Policeman. After the arrest of the prisoner, a man named De Luce preferred a charge against him of having forcibly taken a valuable gold ring from his finger. The accused was locked up to answer.

Fires.

FIRE IN THE HALL OF RECORDS.—Shortly after 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, smoke was discovered issuing through the floor of the Comptroller's office, in the Hall of Records. A statement that the building was on fire, and apprehension for the safety of the public papers and records produced considerable excitement. The fire alarm bell was instantly rung, and several engines speedily came rattling into the Park. On examination it was discovered that a beam had caught fire from an imperfection of a contiguous flue, and was burned in two. A few slashes of an axe, and a few pails of water, fortunately served to extinguish the fire.

ATTEMPT TO BURN A LUMBER-YARD.—A bold incendiary attempt was made, late on Thursday evening, to burn the lumber-yard of WM. SMITH, foot of Vesey-street. Some shavings and rags were saturated with turpentine, set on fire, and thrown among the seasoned lumber. Fortunately, the fire was almost immediately discovered, and the flames extinguished before they had got under much headway. No clue could be obtained to the incendiaries. About a year ago a similar attempt was made to fire the same yard.

IN THIRTY-SEVENTH-STREET.—Between 12 and 1, yesterday morning, a fire was discovered in the stable of Mr. Jno. HUGHES, in Thirty-seventh-street near Ninth-avenue. After the stable was burned, the flames communicated to a frame building adjacent, the lower story being occupied as a well manned store, and the upper part being tenanted by several families. The total damage, including the destruction of the stable, did not exceed $200. No insurance.

IN WEST THIRTY-THIRD-STREET.—Shortly before 1, yesterday morning, a fire occurred in the dwelling-house of Mr. E. TOWNSEND, No. 341 West Thirty-street. It was soon extinguished with trifling damage.

☞ Great Fire at Greensburg, Penn.
From the Evening Bulletin, Sept. 17.

THE RECENT FIRE AT GREENSBURG, PENN.—It is a comfort and consolation to know that while extensive fires must happen, bringing in their train loss and suffering sometimes to a great extent, that even these may have their "alleviation," as the following letter fully proves. And that no person has a right to complain of the loss of books, papers, and other valuables, while such securities as the one named below are so easily procured.

GREENSBURG, Sept. 28, 1857.

To Messrs. Farrel, Herring & Co., No. 130 Walnut-st., Philadelphia:

GENTLEMEN: Out of the most destructive fires that has ever occurred in our place, happened on Tuesday, the 22d inst., burning some twenty-five buildings, I had one of your Herring's Patent Fire Proof Safes in a building that was destroyed. The safe was subjected to an intense heat. It was taken from the ruins the following day, and the door near the handle was still red hot. Its contained books and a number of papers, loose and in bundles, which were not damaged in the slightest. It gives me pleasure to add to the accumulated evidences of the safety and reliability of your safes.

Yours, truly, J. TURNEY.

$1,000 REWARD will be paid to any person that can show that a HERRING'S PATENT CHAMPION SAFE ever failed to preserve its contents in an accidental fire.

FIVE-POINTS HOUSE OF INDUSTRY.
A CARD.

We are frequently called to account in the following manner: Some one calls at the Institution and says, "We sent you, Sir, a donation of provisions, (or money,) on such a day, but you did not acknowledge it." Our explanation, in most cases, is this: There are two mission Houses at the Five Points—one building is called House of Industry, (Mr. Pease's;) the other building is called Five-Points Mission, (Methodist.) If our friend, when about to send as a contribution, should direct it to "Five-Points Mission, New-York," it would not reach Mr. Pease's Institution, but would go to the Methodist Institution, and of course we could not acknowledge its reception, because the two houses have no connection. Donations intended for us should be directed, "L. M. Pease, or R. R. Barlow, House of Industry, Five Points, New-York." Grateful for the liberality of our friends, we feel bound, in justice to them and to ourselves, to make this statement.

R. R. BARLOW, Superintendent.

INDEPENDANT QUERY.
Is there a young man in this City who has vainly sought employment for a period of years past, anxious, energetic, capable and willing?

If there be any such, is it not worth while to inform them that among the thousands of patients, unfortunate victims of an honorable profession, there have been those who, while in adversity, as are many others, or desirous of employment, think to recommend himself by diligence and industry to any one who may need his services, while at the same time he humbly hopes that he may prove capable of adapting himself to almost any situation which may offer where long experience is not absolutely requisite.

Possessed of a limited knowledge of various branches, should any new branch of business offer itself with which he is not familiar, he trusts that by careful application he may soon acquaint himself sufficiently to make his services of some value to his employer.

He can produce such references and testimonials as shall be satisfactory, and hopes that his chief recommendation may lie in his willingness to do his utmost to serve any one who may make trial of his capacity.

To any gentleman in such need, who can offer reasonable assurance of future employment, he is willing to give a month of his time and labor free of charge, with the hope that it may lead to the means of an honorable maintenance.

Should this meet the eye of any person so situated, he will find one ready to do his utmost to please him, by application to Box No.

New-York, Friday, Nov. 26, 1858.

The Society of the Cincinnati.

The members of the old Society dined together at the Everett House on Evacuation Day. Formed so long ago as May, 1783, this Society, which once boasted Washington as a member, was created,

First—"With an unalterable determination to promote and cherish indissoluble Union between the States."

Second—To unite in bonds of affection the officers of the Revolution and their descendants forever.

Third—"As well to commemorate the great event which gave Independence to the United States, as for the purpose of inculcating the duty of laying down in peace arms assumed for the public defence."

The members of the Society of the Cincinnati were originally composed exclusively of officers of the American Army, and they constituted themselves a Society of Friends to "endure as long as they shall endure, or any of their eldest male posterity, and in failure thereof, the collateral branches, who may be judged worthy to become its supporters and members." At the organization of the Society it was declared that:

"The officers of the American army, having generally been taken from the citizens of America, possess a high veneration for the character of that illustrious Roman, Lucius Quinctius Cincinnatus, and being resolved to follow his example, by returning to their citizenship, they think they may, with propriety, denominate themselves "The Society of the Cincinnati."

The following principles form the basis of the Society of the Cincinnati:

"An incessant attention to preserve inviolate those exalted rights and liberties of human nature, for which they have fought and bled, and without which the high rank of a rational being is a curse instead of a blessing. An unalterable determination to promote and cherish, between the respective States, that union and national honor, so essentially necessary to their happiness, and the future dignity of the American empire."

General Washington was the first elected President of the Society of the Cincinnati, and he continued to hold the office from its organization, in 1783, until 1799, when he resigned, and General Alexander Hamilton was elected his successor. At his melancholy death, in 1804, General Charles Cotesworth Pinckney, of South Carolina, became President-General; since when, the Chair has been respectively filled by Colonel Aaron Ogden, of New-Jersey; General Morgan Lewis and Major William Popham, of New-York; General Dearborn, of Massachusetts; and Governor Hamilton Fish, of New-York, who is now not only President-General of the General Society, but also President of the New-York State Society.

The original number of the New-York State Society of the Cincinnati, was 240, and on the 4th of July, 1857, the number was reduced to about 50. On that day, however, a resolution was adopted, admitting to membership all the sons of the original members and their male descendants.

The Society assembled at the Everett House at 6½ o'clock P. M., on Thursday, and with their guests sat down to a dinner which was exceedingly creditable to the proprietor of the Everett. In the absence of the President of the Society, Governor Fish, the Vice-President, Colonel Richard Varick De Witt, took the Chair, aided by the Secretary, Alexander B. Thomson, Esq., and the Dinner Committee, consisting of Messrs. Hoffman, Bleecker, Ward, Douglass, and Webb.

The guests consisted of His Excellency Governor King and Staff, His Honor the Mayor, the Hon. John J. Crittenden of Kentucky, and Major-General Sandford, the Hon. Gulian C. Verplanck, &c., &c. Gen. Scott, the Governor Elect of the State, the Hon. Edward Everett, Washington Irving, Bishop Potter and other distinguished gentlemen were prevented from attending by previous engagements.

The cloth being removed, a series of appropriate toasts were announced from the Chair, and responded to. It was a late hour before the Society separated.

The Departure of General Pico.

HEAD-QUARTERS FIRST DIVISION N. Y. S. M.,

GENERAL ORDERS NO. 13.

In consequence of the deplorable accident which occurred yesterday to the veteran General Pico, his departure from this City is unavoidably postponed.

PARTIAL DEAFNESS AND DISCHARGES FROM THE EAR.—Dr. Hazelay, having been temporarily released from his duties in Philadelphia, in consequence of the destruction by fire of the Institution to which he was the head, begs to announce to those of his patients with whom he has been in communication, that he has, in compliance with their special request, made arrangements to establish an Institution in New-York, and will receive calls during each morning at No. 24 St. Mark's-place.

Dr. H. may have state, that he has no connection whatever with any persons advertising to cure deafness. Neither has he given permission for the publication of a certificate, purporting to emanate from him, and cannot, therefore, be responsible for any alarming consequences resulting from such unwarrantable proceedings. The loss of money may not be material to some persons, but the deprivation of one of the most important of the senses, ought to be regarded and treated with more than ordinary solicitude.

Deafness, noise in the head, and all disagreeable discharges from the ear, speedily and permanently removed without causing the least pain or inconvenience. A cure in all cases guaranteed where malformation does not exist.

Thirteen years' close and almost undivided attention to this branch of special practice has enabled him to reduce his treatment to such a degree of success as to find the most confirmed and obstinate cases yield by steady attention to the means prescribed.

The following testimonials are submitted with confidence. They will show at least in what estimation his professional qualifications are held by some of the most distinguished medical men of the country:

"I have had the pleasure to meet Dr. Hazelay in practice, and have been led to form a favorable opinion of his character, both in profession and as a gentleman.

W. H. Parker, M. D., Professor of Surgery."

"From my intercourse with Dr. Hazelay, I have found his deportment to be correct and gentlemanly.

Valentine Mott, M. D."

From the Nantucket Enquirer, July 9, 1856.

Miss Sarah Swain, of this town, a lady of extensive acquaintance and the first respectability, informs us that in 1846 she became partially deaf to such an extent as to render her unable to understand conversation in an ordinary tone. For the past six months, however, she has been almost entirely deaf.

After an hour's operation Dr. Hazelay removed the cause of the deafness, and Miss Swain's hearing is now fully restored.

Fairhaven, Mass., July 27, 1856.

Dr. Hazelay: It would be impossible for me to express in words my gratitude to you for restoring one of my senses of which I had been, in a measure, deprived for three long years; but, nevertheless, it is true that in twenty minutes I was made to hear as well as I ever did in my life, and many thanks are due to you for that blessing.

Daughter of Mr. J. Howard.

Messrs. Crook & Duff's Dining Saloon.—The Dining Saloon of Messrs. Crook & Duff, in the Times Buildings, has taken the front rank. It has two entrances, on Park-row and Nassau-street, an unusual advantage, rendering it very convenient of access. The main room is a lofty and spacious apartment, paved with marble and handsomely frescoed in walls and ceiling. The furniture is uniform and elegant, and the accommodations altogether comfortable and inviting. The proprietors bring the results of a long experience to bear upon the conduct of their establishment. They have spared no expense in the fitting up and adornment of their premises, and provide a choice bill of fare for the benefit of their customers. The basement is fitted up with a bar, lunch-room and smoking apartment, furnished with comfortable sofas, and, like the upper saloons, runs through from street to street. The appointments for the toilet occupy a separate apartment, and are arranged upon a liberal scale, with marble basins, costly French mirrors, and all modern conveniences. The culinary department, occupying the whole depth of the building, is arranged upon a plan of extraordinary completeness. Its ranges, bake-houses, washing apparatus, and all the paraphernalia of the cuisine, have been constructed upon the most approved principles. The refreshing cleanliness of this part of the establishment, the order which pervades its departments, and the careful oversight which is exercised in its management, are whetters of appetite. It is not every lower region of a dining-saloon that will bear a close inspection. This one courts it. The man who is permitted to examine it, comes away with a vigorous appetite, enjoys his beef-steak with a keen relish, and sips his soup with confidence. Crook & Duff are good purveyors, as well as capable managers, and please the palate by a sumptuous array of the "good things of life." They are reaping a deserved reward in the patronage of an excellent class of customers.

Friday, Nov. 26—P. M.

There was a dull Stock Exchange through the forenoon, and a heavy market at the close of the General Board, with the exception of State Stocks, which are in better request since the English mail by the Africa. The leading Share transactions were again running on New-York Central, on which the jobbers for the rise and fall are pretty equally matched in weight of influence, though numerically the Bear sellers are strongest. The temporary closing of the transfers to-morrow for the annual election affords a ten days' opportunity for heavy speculative sales without the usual employment of certificates, and as these have become relatively scarce on the Street, the sales for the reopening of transfers (or on options which cannot be called in during the closing) are made cheaper this afternoon than for cash. About 4,000 shares are registered at 83@83¼@82¾; but after the list was printed, the price dropped to 82¾@82¾ ⅌ cent. The Western Stocks also left off dull, and in most instances below the morning sales; Rock Island 61¾ ⅌ cent., Galena, 72@72¾ ⅌ cent. Erie and Hudson were about the same as yesterday. Illinois Central, 79¼ ⅌ cent. The English quotations by the Africa are not so good as the last. In reference to the note published in London from one of the late American examiners, it is proper, perhaps, to say that the management on this side do not pretend that means will not be required in some shape for the service of 1859. The ways are deferred to the judgment of the English proprietors, through their London Committee. The Railway mortgages were generally steady to-day. Hudson Thirds and Erie Thirds were ¼@½ ⅌ cent. higher, and Wabash Valley First Mortgage wanted at 73 ⅌ cent. The general market left off in the afternoon dull.

The market for Money to-day is unusually easy. The Brokers, who are not heavy borrowers this week, on account of the dullness of speculation on the Stock Exchange, are supplied at 3@3½ ⅌ cent., returnable on demand. The private lenders are under-bidding the Banks. The terms of the latter are about 4 ⅌ cent. at call. Discounts are without alteration from last report. Most of the good paper is taken at Bank, and the Bill Brokers complain of a dull offering outside. The Sub-Treasury disbursed to-day $132,530 in excess of receipts, and the balance here is reduced to $6,857,264.

There was renewed animation to-day in the Cotton market, and 3,000 bales sold at a further advance of ¼ cent. the pound. At the close, Orleans, Middlings in some instances were held for 12½ cents, and Uplands 12¼ cents. The movement and the sudden energy with which it is conducted, surprise a good many of the old members of the trade; though fully responded to from the Southern markets and backed by the firmness in Goods and Yarns at Manchester.

The Cunard steamer Africa, from Liverpool Saturday, Nov. 13, arrived at this port early this forenoon. Her financial accounts are generally good. The Funds are firmer in London, Paris, and Vienna. The Continental Exchanges again favor England. The trade demand for Money has slightly improved, 2½ ⅌ cent. being the minimum for Discounts in London. On the Stock Exchange loans were easy at 2 ⅌ cent. The Cotton trade is looking well. Breadstuffs continue dull. In American Stocks there is a further response to our October advance, though principally confined to State and Federal Securities, and the leading Railway Bonds. With the exception of New-York Central, in which there are transactions at 78¼@¾ ⅌ cent. sterling money, there was not much doing in American Shares. The following is the latest:

The position of the market for American Railway securities is thus stated by Mr. R. S. Gatthinewaite:

"There has been more disposition during the week to buy American securities in London, which has been further stimulated by the extraordinary advance reported from New-York. Quotations only are still below New-York prices, especially for Illinois Central; the last of the company being dull at 78@79; Erie, 16@16¼, and the Connecticut South is neglected, subject to exchange, which operates very unfavorably. It will be remembered that some time ago a committee was appointed at a meeting of shareholders held at the London Tavern, which committee was to send a deputation to America to sift thoroughly the position of the Illinois Central Railroad. Mr. Wheeler, a member of the committee, almost directly after went out, and subsequently Mr. William Smith was delegated to go entirely on behalf of the committee. Mr. Wheeler drew up a report, which has now been in the hands of the committee about a month; and last Monday week Mr. Smith returned, but as yet no information has been communicated to the shareholders. It is to be hoped the shareholders may speedily be put in possession of the information now in the hands of the committee."

The London correspondent of the Commercial reports:

"American securities have been slightly benefited by the accounts of the animation prevalent at New-York. But Illinois Central shares are still as low as 78@80 discount. The report of the recent deputation of shareholders has not yet been published. As it was known that the parties had returned, and as the shares were showing extreme heaviness, some remark was excited, which has led to the publication of a letter from one of them, explaining the causes of delay, and promising that the required information shall be communicated to the shareholders immediately. A statement is meanwhile volunteered to the effect that there is no probability of a call being found necessary during the year 1859. New-York Central shares have shown firmness, owing to a rather sharp quantity of shares which were pending on the market having been removed by a single purchaser. Albany & Telegraph shares remain at 240. The laying down of the new shore end is believed to be in slow progress."

The London Times, of Nov. 13, says of the Consol movement, &c.:

"Friday Evening.

The English funds opened with firmness this morning, and were steady throughout the day, but with a less favorable tendency at the close. Consols for money were first quoted 93¾@93⅞, and the ultimate prices were 93¾ for money, and 93¾@93⅞ for 7th of December. There was little activity in any department of business, and sales slightly preponderated. Money was again freely supplied on Government securities at 2 ⅌ cent. The closing prices of the French Three per Cents on the Paris Bourse failed to arrive this evening, but transactions took place at the opening at 74f. 30c., for the end of the month, showing a further advance of an eighth. In the foreign exchanges this afternoon, the quotations were generally higher than last post."

The return from the Bank of England for the week ending Nov. 10, gives the following results when compared with the previous week:

Public Deposits	£6,073,351	Increase £97,149
Other Deposits	12,230,628	Increase 40,038
Rest	3,140,002	Increase 36,102
Gov. Securities	10,526,591	Decrease 229
Other Securities	14,997,728	Decrease 110,137
Notes Unemp'd	11,327,390	Increase 380,595

The amount of notes in circulation is £20,989,035, being an decrease of £373,810, and the stock of bullion in both departments is £18,502,827, or about ninety-two and a-half million dollars; showing a decrease of £110,058, or about $550,000 when compared with the preceding return.

The following table will show the fluctuations in Consols since the 5th inst:

	For Money.			For Account.
Nov.	Lowest.	Highest.	Closing.	Lowest.	Highest.	Closing.
Sat. 6	97¾	98	98¼	97¾	98	97¾

There is continued dullness in Grain and Flour at Liverpool; Indian Corn particularly depressed; but in the London market, Wheat is quoted firm. Cotton keeps steady in Liverpool, and the Cotton trade active in Manchester, with an advance in Goods and Yarns. The Guardian of Nov. 13 reports:

"That improved tone which to a large extent was perceptible in our market on Tuesday is maintained. In Yarns a moderate business has been done for India and China and for home consumption; and the German merchants have executed many orders, amounting to a fair aggregate. In general, buyers find that spinners are harder to deal with than they were ten days ago; and some articles are sold at prices ⅛d. if not ¼d. ⅌ lb. above what was taken for them on Tuesday. Shipping descriptions which have hardened most are throstle warps, especially 28s; some counts of pincops; and certain numbers of twist cops, particularly 32s, adapted to the Blackburn demand. We cannot speak of any strengthening in 20s water, or in 4s to 12s mule, scarcely in 4s to 12s water. Doubled yarns show no improvement, but rather the reverse, except 40s. Singles above 40s are flat. The large business of last week in goods for India and China has led to the requirement of rather higher prices, say at least 1½d. ⅌ piece. This has hindered operations, which, however, have been of fair extent during the week. Several kinds of printing Cloths are more in request, and consequently firmer in price. Domestics continue very inanimate; as are also longcloths. Among these coarser articles 7s are the best."

The French Funds are again on the rise. The Three ⅌ Cents have advanced to 74.20. The November return of the Bank of France shows a Bullion stock of $105,000,000. This is $4,600,000 less than on the October return, but the decrease, owing to the movement of Specie to Germany, which has now almost ceased, seems to have been more than anticipated. The Note Circulation holds very steady, and the Commercial Discounts are gradually improving. The following is the detailed comparative statement:

The Wesbeck Bank—Note from Mr. Rhett.

To the Editor of the New-York Times:

Will you do me the justice to publish the following statement of facts in relation to the Wesbeck Bank of Nebraska, in contradiction of an article which appeared in the Times of to-day, which reached Washington on my arrival and was not true, as I have in my possession the papers to prove. But to give you a brief statement of the whole matter: The Wesbeck Bank was a legitimate institution, formed under the general law of Nebraska, and recognized by the people as such, and I was the principal owner. In the early Spring I was induced to come to this City and enter into an arrangement with a well-known Broker in William-street, and a gentleman from Indiana, whereby I parted with two-thirds of the Wesbeck Bank and the management of it. The said Broker arranged with Jesse Tenneson to cashier the bills at a discount of 2 ⅌ cent., when it was used in this City, Buffalo, and many points West. There were printed by the engravers $220,000, $110,000 of which was all that was ever signed. During my absence from the City in the early part of July, the parties let the Bank fail, (as I was told on my return, to help save the McKean County Bank.) I then desired that the bills of the Wesbeck Bank should be burned, and repeated the request on several different occasions, (for fear of some trouble resulting from them in the manner already known to the public,) but I was always put off with some excuse. I have been sick for some six weeks and not able to go about but little, and you can judge of my surprise when a friend informed me that some $2,000 of this money had been put afloat in this City within the past few weeks. I requested my friend to get an order from one of the Judges of the Police Court, and send an officer after the large bulk of these bills, but the Judge sent the officer to me, and I gave an order for the bills, also all the information I was in possession of in regard to it. It is not true that I ever left a dollar of this money on deposit with any broker, either in Wall, William or any other street. It is not true that the bank was a bogus concern. It is true that I was President of the Bank. It is not true that I ever received a dollar loan on the bills of that or any other bank. It is not true that any broker in the City of New-York ever made an advance of one dollar to me on the bills of that bank; and it is not true that the whole thing exploded through the interference of the Police; but died a natural death, without a struggle, at the town of its nativity, Aug. 4, 1858. The bills were taken by Officers Stower and King, from the said broker's office in William-street, and not from Wall-street. The cause of the demise was the want of funds on the part of the said William-street broker. I am, very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,
H. H. HINE.
